Old School - 7th Grade

Peter,
You are a joy and a delight to us and it has been a privilege to call you our son. You have reached one milestone in your journey of life... Graduation! Although you have many more milestones to go, we know you will reach them the same way, laid-back, with fun, but also with hard work. You know how to live life and enjoy it and you know how to work hard. We are so very proud of you! Continue to trust God and put Him first!
Love,
Dad & Mom

Eddie, You have brought us joy and excitement. Thank you for being such a thoughtful son and friend.

Love, Mom and Dad

Dear Roberta,

May you always have a song in your heart, as you did as a preschooler (with a whistled tune through your lips.)

Love,
Mom and Dad

To Our Beautiful Daughter,
Ashley,

We have watched you grow from that cute little girl that would sing and dance around the house into a beautiful young woman (that still likes to sing and dance around the house). Our family has had a lot of ups and downs over the past few years, but together we made it through. You climbed over every obstacle that was placed in your way and have achieved your goals so far. We are so proud of you. Congratulations on your graduation and good luck in culinary college. No matter how far away you go, you will always be our little girl. We love you baby girl.

Love,
Mom and Dad (and your brother, John, loves you too.)

Ariana Brownen Thomas

I remember you coming around the corner of the woodstove dressed in your little yellow raincoat & hat. "Aren't I cute?" "Yes you are: body, mind and soul. A beautiful spirit! The years have flown by, haven't they? You've changed and grown, but you're still very much your own person, just as you were when this picture was taken. We love you so much, honey and we are so proud of the wonderful person you are becoming.

Love,
Daddy & Momma

"He refuses to do what everybody else does!" Your kindergarten teacher told me with frustration. I hope she has learned to appreciate that there is a place in the world for an independent thinker! Be of good courage, do good work.

We love you.
Mom & Dad

My Dear Sweet Pea,

What a gift you are! I have loved being your mom! From day one, there has always been a special quality to you. You are an amazing human being! Growing up, you have had to overcome many obstacles...and you did, with grace, strength, persistence, sensitivity, wisdom, compassion, joy, and generosity. I am so proud of who you are and look forward, with relief, to sharing in the next steps of your life. You have much to contribute to life!

I love you forever, Mom

My Dearest Annie,

I hope you dance!

Love,
Daddy

Eli,

We have been through a lot together, some good and some bad. Like sharing a room with you and then having a room by myself. Or, us playing games together on the rock to you sending me to the hospital, twice. We used to fight all the time but now we don't really fight at all. Well, sometimes we do but it only lasts like a day. I am happy that we don't fight a lot anymore. I never thought we would stop fighting with each other. I am going to miss you when you go to college.

Dedication

Mr. Peter Wallelt and Mr. Don Markie

We the MRUHS class of 2010 want to give a special thanks to a pair of men who stepped forward this year to take the reigns and fill the important role as co-principals. Their combined efforts helped assure that our senior year was indeed something we can take pride in. They stepped up and went beyond the call of duty and for that we are pleased to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Markie and Mr. Wallelt.

Appreciation

Mrs. Mary Bride

MRS. BRIDE

A tough and strong, yet soft and caring individual, who always seems to find the time to talk, guide and keep us on the straight and narrow. A person who takes the time to get involved; someone who always seems to be around to help. For all those reasons, and for so many more, we the MRUHS class of 2010 take great pride in presenting this yearbook appreciation to Mrs. Bride!
